

Team Backup can be configured to use a local backup and recovery server, the "Teamserver", which increases performance by allowing local backups and restores. These are then replicated to Team Backup's servers in either Sydney or Melbourne. Alternatively you can backup directly to our servers and opt for a replicated copy to be sent to another backup server if you wish.

